About this form

This form should be used for the reinstatement of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander corporation.

Note: Before reinstatement of a corporation can happen, this office will require this form to be completed and returned to this office with the following:

- (a) general report for the most recent financial year
- (b) financial and directors' reports for the most recent financial year (if required)
- (c) any other information showing that the corporation should not have been deregistered and should be reinstated.

What happens when you return your form?

Your form will be checked to make sure it is filled in properly. If it is not complete, or extra information is required, ORIC will write to the contact person and the extra information will need to be provided.

ORIC will then consider your application. If ORIC decides to reinstate the corporation it will:

- put a notice about the reinstatement in the Gazette
- send a notice about the reinstatement to the applicant listed on the form
- reinstate the corporation on the public Register of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Corporations.

Question 2

*Indigenous Corporation
Number (ICN)*

From 1 July 2007 the ICN needs to go on public documents (e.g. cheques, documents lodged with the Registrar and business letters).

Question 4

Size of the corporation

Under the CATSI Act and the Corporations (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) Regulations 2007:

A small corporation is a corporation that has at least two of the following:

- total gross operating income less than $100 000
- total gross assets less than $100 000
- less than five employees.

A large corporation is a corporation that has at least two of the following:

- total gross operating income equal to or more than $5 million
- total gross assets equal to or more than $2.5 million
- 25 or more employees.

Any corporation that does not fit within the 'small' or 'large' categories is classed as a medium corporation.
